Inspector Swanston stated that on the 23rd inst., at 12:20 p.m.; he went to the first floor of No. 264, Queen's Road, where he found the prisoners, along with a number of other men, engaged in gambling. Over thirty men escaped. Since the 25th inst, a wall at the back of the house had been removed in order to allow of hasty retreat being made should the house be surprised by the Police. Some time ago the same house was entored by the Police and thirty-five men arrested. He therefore pressed for a heavy penalty. Prisoners were fined $50 or in default three months' imprisonment.

The Tribune's Halifax special says:-The efforts made by an American syndicate to purchase a controlling interest in all the Canadian iron mines have driven the Canadian capitalists to orgadize themselves into a coal and iron association of Canada. This association is composed of representatives of the Cumberland, Colchester, Picton and Cape Breton mines, representing $50,000,000 capital. The American syndicate, represented by Senator Payne, wants to export Canadian ore to the United States for the manufacturers there. They have already spent $2,500,000 in developing the mines at Modoc. The Canadian capitalists are urging the Government to increase the duties so as to enable smelting works to be established in the Cape Breton and Pictor coal districts. LEGISLATION FOR IRELAND.

LONDON, 28th March. Lord Salisbury left town after Saturday's Cabinet council for Windsor Castle, to wait upon the Queen. This sudden and mysterious journey was entirely unexpected in political quarters and gave rise to the rumour that the Ministry had resolved to resign. In Downing street version given is that the Cabinet decided to advise the Queen to proclaim Ireland, pending the discussion in the House of Commons on the Coercion bill. The Tory managers affect believe that Gladstone's speech will encourage resistance to law and bloodshed in Ireland durministerial crisis is imminent.

LONDON, 29th March. In the Commons to-day Mr. Gladstone resumed the debate on the Irish criminal law amendment. He was loudly cheered when he arose. He said that in an issue so grave proposals as made. those now put forth by the Government required ample time for consideration. He found himself bound to support Parnell's amendment, because the ground on which Balfour based the Government's case was absolutely insufficient and unsatisfactory. The Government's bill, instead of being a cure for Irish ills, or even a palliative, was a measure that would aggravate deep-seated disorders. LETTERS FOR THE UNITED STATES BY SAILING When it is desired to forward letters to the United States by a sailing ship which is not notified as carrying a mail, it is only necessary to post the letters in the ordinary way, marked with the name of the ship, and prepaid 10 cents per half ounce as usual. The Post Office then undertakes the duty of obtaining notice of departure and despatching the correspondence. It is requested that the letters be posted if possible at least one day before the date fix id for sailing.

TEA . MUSTERS. Persons who send Musters of Tea through the Post in Tins are requested to have them made flat or square instead of round, as it is impossible to pack round tins securely in the mail Rooms 20 AND 21, MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE, bags.
